

CONTENTS

I	INTRODUCTION . . . . .	1
II	THE SETTING OF ITHACA . . . . . Geography. Geology. Climate.	5
III	INFANCY: 1653--1810 . . . . . Indian Inhabitants. Missionaries. Sullivan's Expedition. First White Settlers. DeWitt Purchase.	13
IV	WATERWAY DREAMS . . . . . Gypsum Trade. Erie Canal. Early Manufacturing. Moral Society. Incorporation of Village. Ithaca and Owego Railroad. Godus Bay Canal. Inflation. Panic of 1837.	41
V	THE RAILWAY WEB . . . . . Depression. Cornell and the Telegraph. Coal Trade. Flood of 1857. Civil War. Cornell Library. Ezra Cornell's Railroad Projects. A Second Industrial Boom. Panic of 1873.	67
VI	A NEW IMPORTANCE . . . . . Ithaca College. Ithaca Academy. The Morrill Act. Cornell University. Public School System. Short-lived Industries.	97
VII	THE CITY OF ITHACA . . . . . Demand for Civic Improvements. Telephone. Electric Light. Street Railways. Renwick Park. Territorial Expansion. Water Works. City Charter. City Government. Flood Menace Removed. Parks. City Planning.	152
VIII	INDUSTRIAL MATURITY . . . . . Manufacturing Plants. Development of Natural Resources. Production of Motion Pictures. Banks. Associations of Business Men. Industrial Relations. Barge Canal.	149

162 motion

CONTENTS

IX	TOWARD HARMONY . . . . .	177
	Early Social Agencies. Palliative Efforts. Pre- ventive Efforts. Health Work. Community Chest. Churches. Fraternal Orders. American Legion.
X	TOWN AND GOWN . . . . .	213
	A Census of Intellect. Growth of Cornell Uni- versity. State Colleges. Cornell's Achieve- ments. Ithaca Conservatory of Music and Af- filiated Schools. Empire State School of Print- ing. A Mutually Helpful Relationship.
	BIBLIOGRAPHY . . . . .	231
	INDEX . . . . .	239