THE ITHACA GORGE.

This charming resort—unsurpassed in

NATURAL AND ADDED CHARMS

By any like place—is open for all, and will be thronged by those who love the beautiful.

Ithaca and its surroundings are famed—and justly so—for picturesque beauty, and the Gorge is an epitome of it all; indeed, taking

The Gorge with its glorious Waterfalls and Rocks,

and terminating as it does in the grounds of Cornell University, we think we do not err when we say that there is no two miles in the State of New York so replete with interest as this.

TRIP HAMMER GROVE,

At the upper end of the Gorge, has been fitted up in a very complete manner for use of

PICNIC PARTIES,

And take it as a whole, the delightful shade, the adjoining waterfalls, and the convenience of boating on the waters of Beebe's dam, there is no place more attractive for tourists in Central New York.

Persons at a distance can receive information by addressing the subscriber.

INTRODUCTION.

---

In presenting this work to the Public, we deem it our duty not to let the occasion pass without giving expression to our appreciative feelings

When the canvass was commenced on this "Directory," all the opposition imaginable was brought to bear against the enterprise, owing to the people doubting that it would be a correct work etc., but doubts were soon dispelled—the public judging from the manner in which the labor was conducted. Every effort was brought into requisition to make this Directory of such a character, that the people would feel themselves dealt justly by. We will always recall with feelings of pleasure the canvass in Ithaca and the adjacent villages constituting Tompkins County.

Publicly and in private we have always received the same polite and courteous attention, and the liberal patronage bestowed upon us, we have striven to merit.

We specially return our thanks to the Press for so liberally and frequently endorsing our efforts, appreciating fully the benefits derived therefrom.

We could have made the Directory much larger than what it is, but we considered it not displaying (in our humble judgment) good taste, to introduce matter which would be foreign to what the work is intended to represent.

Ithaca June 1, 1872.

Respectfully &c.

THE PUBLISHER.

Central Carriage Manufactory,

OF

H. H. HICKS & CO., GROTON, N. Y.

Established in 1865, rebuilt in 1866.

Factory on Mill Street, a few rods West of Groton Hotel.

Having, during the past five years acquired a reputation for excellence of workmanship, and style and beauty of their Carriages and Cutters, would announce that they shall continue to manufacture

Sleighs and Fine Cutters, Carriages and Buggies,

Platform Spring and Lumber Wagens. Orders for fine Carriages continue large, but we shall endeavor to keep on hand as desirable stock as may be found in this section, and at prices that cannot be beaten.

Our Platform Spring Wagens are the Admiration of All

We have a long experience in the business, and employ the very best workmen. We are confident of our ability to give satisfaction in every case. Our work is the very best, and warrant it equal to that of any Manufactory.

Persons wishing Buggies or Wagens built to order, will please give us a call, as we think we can satisfy them in every respect,

REPAIRING AND PAINTING.

We shall make a speciality of Repairing and painting all classes of vehicles, for which we have unequalled facilities. Also, to re-painting and varnishing Carriages, Cutters and all other vehicles, in the best manner. Give us a trial.

H. H. HICKS.
