Names are listed in Rural Index

RURAL INDEX, a directory listing the names of the heads of all rural homes outside the city and village limits, provides a supplement to this MAP. The "COM-PASS ADDRESS," as shown on the MAP (not the mailing address), is given after each name. Copies may

To accurately locate KNOW THE "COM

EXPLANATION of the "Compass Address" System—Everyone realizes that "John Doe, R.F.D. 3, Farmville," indicates little regarding the exact location of John Doe's residence. To locate a certain individual "who lives on R.F.D. 3" invariably involves considerable guessing and searching. RURAL INDEX & MAP—with its "compass" address of each rural home outside the city and village limits of Tompkins County—now eliminates all such uncertainty.

Example: John Doe, 3NW Groton 110T.

The figure "3" represents the number of miles from the compass center (Groton, in this example). The letter or letters following it refer to the comte a rural residence MPASS ADDRESS" pass direction from the center, North-West in this case. The number following the name of the compass center is the house number and the letter is the road letter. All roads in the county are lettered and every farm house has its number. From the example then, we see that Mr. Doe lives three miles North-West of Groton in house number 110 on "T" road. This definitely locates his farm on the map.

midnight, - that's considered a real day's work at Station WHAM. And what a day it is ! The equivalent in length of six double feature movie bills every day in the week.

WHAM Offers Diversified Programs.

WHAM has been on the air since 1922. In 1926 it became a part of the Stromberg-Carlson organization and increased its power to 5,000 watts. In 1934 under Stromberg-Carlson guidance it further increased power to 50,000 watts, becoming one of the most powerful stations in the country. This super-power and the absence of other stations at WHAM's spot on your dial assures perfect reception of WHAM both day and night.

WHAM has a staff whose work it is to determine what balance of programs will hold most appeal for the WHAM audience.

Guided by these program experts, WHAM mixes news with drama; adds such features as the Farm and Home Hour: takes time out for the "School of the Air", then finds room for generous periods of music and variety entertainment.

Whatever your taste in radio WHAM tries with sincerity to satisfy it.

WHAM welcomes the comments and criticisms of its listeners because it is in business to give them the radio entertainment they desire.

To satisfy you WHAM must have your criticisms and suggestions. In cooperating with Rural Directories, Incorporated, WHAM has but one motive,—to request you to make known your radio desires and wishes. Please forward them to WHAM, Rochester, New York.
